

Lt. Governor André Bauer Announces Grant Award for Strawberry Assistance Center of Moncks Corner

(Columbia , S.C.) Lt. Governor André Bauer announced today that the non-profit Strawberry Assistance Center of Moncks Corner is the recipient of a $10,000 grant from the South Carolina Alzheimer's Resource Coordination Center (ARCC) to expand their respite program.

“The support that the Strawberry Assistance Center provides to the families and caregivers of those living with Alzheimer's and related disorders is vital to their health and stability,” said Lt. Governor Bauer. “These respite programs are a good investment in South Carolina seniors and their families and we are proud to support them with this grant.”

The ARCC, part of the South Carolina Lt. Governor's Office on Aging, was created to provide statewide coordination, service system development, information and referral, and caregiver support services to individuals with Alzheimer's disease and related disorders, their families and caregivers.

For more information about the respite program supported by this ARCC grant, contact Pastor Al Finley at (843)-761-4492.

-END-

Cutline for picture: Tony Kester, director of the Lt. Governor's Office on Aging congratulates Pastor Al Finley on the grant that the Strawberry Assistance Center received to expand their Alzheimer's respite program.